About the 2015 Special Olympics World Games

With 7,000 athletes representing 170 countries, along with 3,000 coaches, 30,000 volunteers and an anticipated 500,000 spectators, the 2015 Special Olympics World Games – being staged in Los Angeles July 24 – August 2, 2015 – will be the largest sports-and-humanitarian event anywhere in the world that year, the biggest single event in Los Angeles since the 1984 Olympic Games and a 10-day celebration of the skills, courage and spirit of those with intellectual disabilities. The Games will feature 26 Olympic-style events in venues throughout the Los Angeles region, following the Opening Ceremony in the historic Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum, site of the 1932 and 1984 Olympic Games. The Games Organizing Committee, LA2015, is a recognized 501(c)(3).
