

City of Chattanooga
Office of the Mayor

Proclamation

- Whereas: The City of Chattanooga wishes to honor those distinguished individuals who have dedicated their lives and talents to serving their community and their family; and
- Whereas: The City of Chattanooga takes great pleasure in paying tribute to those special Americans who have affected many by their talents, love, and generosity; and
- Whereas: On this day, September 25, 2010, the City of Chattanooga wishes to join with cities across America to honor the life of Ms. Eunice Kennedy Shriver, and her countless efforts to promote disability awareness and inclusion for people of all abilities; and
- Whereas: For many years, Ms. Shriver offered her family's influence and wealth to create numerous opportunities for people with disabilities including the creation of the Special Olympics which many of Orange Grove's clients actively participate in each year; and
- Whereas: Such selfless acts of love, charity, and devotion should not be forgotten, but should be recognized both locally and nationally

Now Therefore,

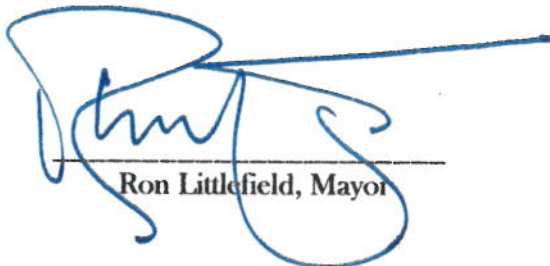

I, Ron Littlefield, Mayor of the City of Chattanooga, do hereby proclaim Saturday, September 25, 2010 in honor of

Ms. Eunice Kennedy Shriver

In Witness Whereof,

I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of Chattanooga to be affixed this the 25th day of September, 2010.

Ron Littlefield, Mayor
