

What is Project UNIFY?

Special Olympics Project UNIFY® is a strategy for engaging schools to use the sports programs and educational tools of Special Olympics to create school climates of inclusion, acceptance, respect and human dignity for all students with and without intellectual disabilities.

Why should I get involved?

Special Olympics Project UNIFY® brings together sports programming, curriculum, service-learning, and educational/awareness activities. It focuses on youth as leaders and major contributors on project design, implementation, evaluation and sustainability. It's also about fun and friendship!

Project UNIFY's key characteristics

- Unifying Sports Programming
- Youth Leadership
- School/Community Collaborations
- Creating and Sustaining Relationships
- Communications
- Professional Development
- Continuous Improvement

Who do I contact for more information?

Andrea Cahn, Executive Director, Special Olympics Project UNIFY
acahn@specialolympics.org or

Your state Special Olympics office

http://www.specialolympics.org/program_locator.aspx

Special Olympics
Be a fan..