

Special Olympics World Winter Games Student Delegation Application

Please complete the following information and provide a copy of your resume or CV as well as any additional materials that you feel will strengthen your application (i.e. letters of recommendation, journal articles, etc.). Please note that you are not limited to the space provided on the application, you may attach additional pages as necessary.

Additionally, please ensure that you meet the following requirements:

- Current graduate student focusing on human rights and disability issues (e.g. Law, Public Policy, International Development)
- Available to be in PyeongChang, Korea from January 27, 2013 through February 2, 2013
- Valid passport (or ability to obtain a valid passport prior to January 2013)
- Background/research focus in intellectual/developmental disabilities
- Proficiency in English and ability to complete a short presentation in English
- Able to complete a post-Games project (~20 hours) with Special Olympics after the Games

Special Olympics will cover the following costs:

- Air fare to and from PyeongChang, Korea
- Hotel stay (double occupancy)

Return all materials by October 12, 2012 to Rachel Moscato at rmoscato@specialolympics.org.

Name:

Institution:

Degree Program/Current Year:

Email address/phone number:

How did you learn about this stipend?

Special Olympics web site

Faculty member:

Email Distribution List:

Other, please specify:

List prior work in the field of intellectual disabilities and/or international development (research and practice/service): (Note: please mention any journal articles on which you are an author.)

All members of the Student Delegation will have the opportunity to present their work to other students and scholars. On what topic would you present?

List any other work or experiences that you feel make you a good candidate for this stipend (include any experience with Special Olympics):

If selected for this stipend, how will participating in the Special Olympics World Games influence your future professional and/or personal endeavors?

Please provide us with any information not previously covered that you feel will strengthen your application.