Summit Scoop | Youth Leader Spotlight

Jakub Marcinko will be representing Special Olympics Slovakia at the 2023 Global Youth Leadership Summit in Berlin. Jakub has been participating in Special Olympics since 2019 as a two season athlete. He enjoys swimming, cycling, and rollerblading during the summer and in the winter he practices ice-skating. Jakub has competed internationally as a Special Olympics figure skater and cyclist. In his free time, Jakub enjoys reading, studying maps, and building model railways. Jakub is part of the Unified Generation because he values getting to know other people from different countries and cultures. He believes it is important for others to gain new experiences through sports!
