

MISSION:

To provide year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with an intellectual disability, giving them continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy and participate in the sharing of gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympics athletes and the community.

HISTORY:

In Iran, Special Olympics were established in 2000 by Professor Asghar Dadkhah, a clinical psychologist with a deep commitment to serving individuals with intellectual disabilities. Recognizing his expertise and dedication, Eunice Shriver enlisted Professor Dadkhah's support in developing the Special Olympics program in Iran.
