OUR MISSION

Special Olympics provides year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic-type sports for children and adults with intellectual disabilities, giving them continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy and participate in a sharing of gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympics athletes and the community.

The data presented in this document are sourced from the Special Olympics Reach Report, which summarizes the breadth, depth, and impact of the global Special Olympics movement including data from 172 countries on athletes, coaches, competitions, financial support and other areas.
