

Family Public Speaking Tour

---

Mrs. Fan's son, FAN Jin-Chia is a boy with Down Syndrome. His sports is swimming and Kayaking. When Jin-Chia was young, Mrs. Fan tided over the hard time and quit her job in order to give herself fully in taking care of her son. She never gave up any attempt that might help Jin-Chia improved whenever she met any difficulties. Jin-Chia now grows up to a pleasant, friendly and confident boy. He gain swimming coach license and is helping others by teaching in the swimming lessons. Funded by King Car Education Foundation, Mrs. Fan and her son had the chance to have a lecture tour across Taiwan and share their story of success to the public. During their tour, they had a stop in a prison. When everyone were touched by the stories that encouraged people dare to face squarely the setback and cherish life, a prisoner suddenly grasped Jin-Chia's arm and shivered without any words. After transient surprise, Mrs. Fan was told this prisoner's son was also a child with intellectual disabilities. He was deeply moved by the stories and retrieved his confidence to start a new life after returning home. (Chinese Taipei)

