

Gold Volunteer Award Winner: Mr. Mok

Mr. MOK Chi-Ming is one of family leaders in Special Olympics Hong Kong Family Support Network. His son, MOK Ho-Yin is an athlete of Bowling team. Although Mr. Mok stands 180cm with a strong corpulent body, he is gentle in manner and always wearing a smiling face. His family of three (Mr. Mok, Mrs. Mok & Ms. Mok) joined the family cheering group to the 2011 World Summer Game. Upon finishing the trip, Mr. Mok had made up his mind to become a volunteer of Family Support Network. Since then, Mr. Mok and the whole family took active part in family volunteer activities. Ms. MOK Wai-Lam, the elder sister of Ho-Yin, started doing more exercises and learning indoor rowing after the trip in Athens, Greece. In early 2012, Mr. MOK won the gold volunteer award (for individual) of Hong Kong Special Olympics 2011-12. (Hong Kong)
