

Special Olympics Middle East North Africa Amina Msefer – Special Olympics Morocco

Amina is the mother of Special Olympics Athlete, Loubna, who competes in swimming. Amina has been involved with Special Olympics Morocco for the past 13 years. She has exemplified outstanding family leadership by organizing local family conferences, encouraging other family members to become actively involved and spreading the mission of Special Olympics to the surrounding community. Amina looks forward to sharing her own Special Olympics Family experience with other families across the Region as well enriching her own Special Olympics experience by learning and listening to the stories of others.
